Diana Ladies' Challenge Cup — No races sailed.

NOTES AND NEWS.

As in previous years points races will be held on Tuesday and Thursday evenings and on Saturday afternoons; evening races will be started at 6.45 p.m. until the end of July, and thereafter at 6.30 p.m.; afternoon races will be started at 3 p.m.

Points races have been included in the programme for the fortnight after the Redwing Championship Week which is being held this year at Plymouth from 27th August to 1st September.

* * *

A year ago the Club was most fortunate in obtaining permission from the Penzance Borough Council to rent Beach Bungalow as a Clubhouse. Our tenure is from season to season only, but we hope that the Council may find it possible to allow our continued occupation of the premises.

The Clubhouse proved a great asset during last year's Redwing Championship and has provided a port of call for officers from H.M. ships and yachtsmen visiting Penzance.

It is the intention of the Committee that the Club shall be open during the summer season on Tuesday and Thursday evenings, Saturday afternoons and Sunday mornings. Notice of any alterations to these arrangements will be posted on the Club noticeboard.

* * *

For the 1956 season ladies sailing as helmswomen or crews will be awarded points equal to those gained by the boats in which they sail in all J, K and W races.

The Diana Cup will be presented to the lady gaining the most points.

The results of last year's August Bank Holiday Team Races were:—Penzance 41½ points, Restronguet S.C. 32½ points. Unfortunately the Helford River S.C. could not raise a team. This year we hope that the Newquay S.C. will be sending a team too.

* * *

Peter Gartrell sailed Lynx (No. 145) consistently well during the Redwing Championships last year gaining two firsts, a second and a third. He won the Championship Race and shared first place for the Points Trophy.

The Penzance Challenge Trophy was awarded to the Club Team after a drifting match.

* * *

"Comet" Penny has very kindly placed his Redwing (No. 77) at the disposal of the Committee for use as a Club boat on Tuesday and Thursday evenings to encourage younger members.

Anyone wishing to sail her should get in touch with the Hon. Sailing Secretary. A charge of 5/- per race will be made.

* * *

The Committee have decided, subject to confirmation at the next Annual General Meeting, to allow young people up to the age of eighteen to become Cadet Members for an annual subscription of 5/-.

* * *

Club ties are available from the Hon. Secretary and Hon. Treasurer.
